A Note from Stephen

Hello Residents and Families,

I hope all are having a good beginning of this new year. Starting this month, I will be playing the good old songs every Tuesday and Thursday from 3:00-3:30pm. I had many requests to play more often. It's my pleasure to share my music with everyone. We really have a good time, don't we! It's fun when Clarence plays his harmonica with me. Thanks, Clarence. Keep it up. Valentine's Day is just around the corner. Please, join me in the main dining room on the 14th at 2:00pm. I'll be serving Valentine's Day treats and will give a program playing love songs on the keyboard. All are invited to come for a dessert and sing along with me as I play. A few care attendants and I got together and went through my activities supply catalogue and selected some new and fun things for us to do.

Enjoy all the Valentine poems on page three.

That's all for now. Keep smiling. It spreads.

Have a good month. Stay positive. Stay happy.

Quality Valentine

Life is always better when you know a person who is congenial, compatible, who always has a clue; In whom the finest qualities agreeably combine, someone nice to have around;
That's you, Valentine!

Every Day Valentine

If every day were Valentine's Day, then every day we'd tell you we wish there were someone for everyone to lighten burdens, generate smiles, and make life a happier place, as you do for us. What a wonderful world that would be.

Glad to know you

On Valentine's Day, the day of affection, our thoughts quickly turn in your direction.
This Valentine poem is meant to show you how very glad we are to know you!

Who says we don't have fun! Look at the ball.
