We express our christian sympathy to the family & friends of

Gale L. Dutcher

Blessed be his memory

~A Note from John, Activity Director~

I want to take this time to thank each and every one of you for calling Keystone home. What a tremendous and memorable year we've experienced in 2011. As we engage in this special time of year, let us reflect on all the precious memories this special time bestows upon our community, our family, our friends and ourselves. May you be blessed this Christmas season. May you be touched by all the sights, sounds and love the Christmas season brings and may your Christmas be merry and bright.
